

The Division of Rehabilitation Services (DRS) is a state vocational rehabilitation agency whose primary purpose is to help individuals with disabilities obtain and maintain community-based employment. Most students who receive special education services qualify for DRS services. If you are eligible, the DRS Vocational Program can provide services such as:

- Vocational Guidance and Counseling
- Secondary Transitional Experience Program
- Job Search and Placement Services
- Supported Employment Programs (SEP)
- On-The-Job Evaluation
- Information/Referrals to Other Agencies
- Benefits Information and Advisement for SSI/SSDI, Medicaid
- Vocational Assessments
- Personal Care Assistants
