

Restriction for Physical Education Policy

Any restriction from physical education for medical reasons requires written verification from a parent or licensed medical physician, advanced practice nurse, or physician assistant detailing the length of and type of restriction. A form listing the restrictions may be obtained from the school nurse and sent to your physician.

Selective Restriction from Physical Education →